They will be instructed to complain of the action of Gen. Kanlars as Russian agent in Bulgaria, and to ask the czar to name a candidate for the Bulgarian throne. Russian consuls in Bulgaria have been ordered to refuse passports to the members of the proposed delegation.

WASPS BITE GLADSTONE.

LONDON, Oct. 24.—Mr. Gladstone, while felling a tree at Hawarden on Saturday, routed a nest of wasps. They made an attack upon him, in consequence of which he was unable to attend church today, as his face is terribly swollen from the effects of the insect bites.

TURKEY SHORT OF MONEY.

CONSTANTINOPLE, Oct. 24.—In addition to orders for new torpedo boats the sultan has commanded the admiralty to expend $1,500,000 on men-of-war. In view of the state of Turkish finances the cabinet ministers oppose this new project of the sultan, especially the grand vizier, who strongly objected to the building of the torpedo boats.

NOMINATED FOR A RECTORSHIP.

LONDON, Oct. 24.—The Earl of Idlesleigh, minister for foreign affairs, and Rt. Hon. Sir Lyon Playfair have been nominated for the rectorship of Edinburgh university. ## A BIG-HEARTED LANDLORD.

DUBLIN, Oct. 24.—Mr. Scully, a large owner in Tipperary, has abated 25 per cent. of his judicial rents. This is the largest reduction made in Tipperary since judicial rents were established. Scully, in notifying his tenants of the reduction, said he could not ignore the condition of affairs at the present time, and was prepared to share with his tenants the inevitable losses.

GAINESVILLE.

A Heavy Rain—Stolen Checks—Burglary.
Hand Mashed.

SPECIAL TO THE GAZETTE.
GAINESVILLE, TEX., Oct. 24.—A severe rain and hail storm occurred at Red River bridge yesterday afternoon. The storm extended some distance this side of the river. The river rose eight feet in a short time, and was booming this morning. So far as learned no damage was done to the bridge, though work will be temporarily suspended.

As Irishman called "Scotty" and one Tom Wilson stole two checks from Mr. C. O. Turner yesterday, drawn on the Red River National bank. Wilson had his check cashed at once, but Scotty failed to get his cashed, the bank teller suspecting that he had come by it dishonestly. Mr. Turner was notified, and the officers soon arrested both parties, who are now behind the bars.

Thieves effected an entrance into Billy Schwartz's saloon last night, getting $20 in money, a lot of checks and some whiskey.

The little child of City Marshal Honeycutt had its hand badly mashed yesterday by a window falling on it. The hurt was very painful, but the hand will be saved.

GOLD IN MASSACHUSETTS.

A Rich Gold Mine Found Near North Adams.

NORTH ADAMS, MASS., Oct. 24.—H. D. Ward, who has been prospecting for gold, silver, copper and sulphur about North Adams for years, and who started an exploration in a place where sulphur, gold and copper are now being mined successfully, has struck gold and silver about four miles from here on Love's farm at the foot of Greylock mountain, near a mine worked by Quakers seventy years ago. The state assayer writes that it nets $51 a ton and Ward has bought 400 acres of land adjoining. Land there cannot now be bought at any price. Ward says he followed the Quaker mine on the same theory by which the famous Comstock lode was discovered. A company will be formed immediately.

DRIVEN TO DESPERATION.

A Type of the Pair Sex Commits Suicide at Fort Smith.

SPECIAL TO THE GAZETTE.
FORT SMITH, ARK., Oct. 24.—Miss Nellie Johnson, sixteen years of age, committed suicide at the home of her parents in this city to-day at 1 p. m., by taking strychnine. She was upon the avenue about noon and started home. When about two blocks from the residence she was seen to take the contents of a small paper, and then throw the paper down. She reached home and died a few moments afterwards. Miss Johnson was a poor girl, and had been the subject of much unmerited slander, and it is thought that this so worked on her mind as to drive her to the terrible deed she to-day committed. She has been for some time employed as a compositor on the Daily Times of this city.

THE APACHES.

Geronimo, Natchez and Bucks on Their Way to Prison.

NEW ORLEANS, LA., Oct. 24.—Geronimo, Natchez and thirteen bucks and seventeen squaws and papooses, heavily guarded by United States troops, passed through this city yesterday afternoon. The bucks will be sent to Fort Pickens, Pensacola bay, and the squaws and papooses to St. Augustine, Fla. There was a large crowd of people at the depot and ferry landing anxious to get a look at the savages.

EARTHQUAKES.

A General Rise of Water in the Wells at Summerville.

CHARLESTON, S. C., Oct. 24.—There has been no seismic disturbance here since Friday night. There was one shock at Summerville to-day at 11:10 a. m. It was scarcely perceptible but for the fact that it was preceded by detonations. One serious result of the shocks at Summerville Friday afternoon is the general rise of water in the wells. One case at the Summerville depot shows that the water rose thirty-four feet. The general average is from six to eight feet. In one special instance the water rose fifty feet in a well and remained at that height several hours and then fell five feet. Observations also show that the water was extended almost invariably from fissures or geyers made on the night of August 28.

Next Week.

WACO, TEX., Oct. 24.—The Texas division of the St. Louis, Arkansas & Texas railroad will not have the present narrow gauge broadened until one week from to-day.

They Are Determined.

SPECIAL TO THE GAZETTE.
BOWIE, TEX., Oct. 24.—Correspondence has been opened with R. R. Cabel, president of the Chicago, Rock Island & Pacific railway, to see on what terms he will build his road through Bowie. Our railroad committee are still hard at work, and are determined to have this road if it takes half of Montague county to pay for it.

Handling the Line.

SPECIAL TO THE GAZETTE.
WHITENIGHT, TEX., Oct. 24.—W. W. Walker, assistant engineer, and surveying party of the St. Louis, Arkansas & Texas Railroad company, have reached this place and located the second line from Sherman. They will take up Mr. Gile's transit line and locate from here to Commerce, Tex., at once. Grading "will begin in a few days."

Brakemen Must Speak Clearly.
For years the public have been complaining because brakemen indistinctly call out the names of stations. Superintendent Blackham has undertaken to make further complaint unnecessary, at least so far as the Susquehanna division of the Erie is concerned. An order issued to passenger conductors requires them to see that the announcement of the names of stations be made twice in each car, and in all cases in a clear and deliberate manner, and with voice enough to be distinctly heard by the passengers.

Extra Duty for the Conductor.
Oliver Howlett and Emma Whitmire made up their minds to be married while traveling on the Williamsport & North Branch railroad in Pennsylvania, October 8. They asked the conductor, Rev. W. H. Lilly, to tie the knot, and he complied. It is not every conductor who can be so accommodating.

Cure that frightful cough with a few doses of Red Star Cough Cure. Twenty-five cents.

A Brilliant Marriage.

SPECIAL TO THE GAZETTE.
HILLSBORO, TEX., Oct. 24.—Lieut. Beaumont B. Buck and bride are in Hillsboro visiting his father's family. The pair were married in Fort McIntosh on the 20th inst., the occasion being one of the most brilliant ever witnessed in that part of the state. Bernard, a veteran army officer in command at Fort McIntosh. The bridesmaids were Miss Pauline Buck, the lieutenant's sister of this place, and Miss Mary Otis of San Antonio. ## POLITICAL.

gusion of alliance affiliations. Mr. Tyler made an exposition of Democracy. Judge Roseborough is a candidate for re-election. He said during his talk that he would defend the true principles of government if it cost him his office. He touched upon the farmers, the men who did not want office last spring, but seem quite anxious for it now are the leaders of the Anti-Monopoly party. He showed that they were neither laboring men nor laboring men's friends. He also gave R. H. Kingsbury some special notice, not that he loved Mills too well but that he loved Kingsbury less. The judge wound up with an analysis of the Holland Workman. His remarks bore specially on a communication to the Workman. The judge said the man who wrote that was a traitor to his country, and if the editor endorsed the sentiment he was a traitor. The judge is certainly a bold candidate, and honest in his views. He proposed last night to meet the opposition anywhere and discuss the principles at issue.

Jones at Longview.

SPECIAL TO THE GAZETTE.
LONGVIEW, TEX., Oct. 24.—Hon. J. H. Jones of Henderson presented the truths of Democracy in a most acceptable manner to a large audience at the court-house. Without abusive epithets he showed what had been done in the interest of the people of the country by the Democrats in congress in opposition to the united endeavors of the Republicans to oppose.

Cone Johnson of Tyler, Democratic nominee for electoral representative of Smith and Gregg counties, made a brilliant speech, confining himself strictly to the desires of the people and the fact that those desires, when not in conflict with the principles of true Democracy, could be obtained by acting with the party. He made an excellent impression and the thought found expression that he would make his mark in the state capitol the coming winter.

The many Democratic nominees for the county offices were also advertised to speak, but diffidence prevented all except Mr. Russ Adams, who, in an excellent speech of half an hour, presented many local "cases in nutshells," often bringing down the house with his hits. Russ is a farmer and believes in the alliance, but advocates strict adherence to the Democracy and a voting of the Democratic ticket without scratching.

The Snyder Barbecue.

CORRESPONDENCE OF THE GAZETTE.
SNYDER, TEX., Oct. 22.—The barbecue at this place was a success in every respect. Hon. S. W. T. Lanham addressed the people, giving an account of his stewardship as our congressman, sketching briefly his vote on questions the press of the district had criticized or commented upon, and giving reasons for voting as he did, all of which seemed to be satisfactory to the people. Mr. Lanham heretofore had a strong following in this section, and his talk yesterday to the people has more than strengthened him, for West Texas believes him to be the purest and brainiest man in congress.

Col. Clementson of Colorado followed Mr. Lanham with an address urging the people to exercise a freeman's will as a freeman should; that is, to vote for those who are most capable for the position, ending with an appeal to the audience to stand true to the Democracy, the life-shield to the rights of man.

We were then addressed by the local candidates. The concentrating point in the local contest is the election of county judge, and as the election draws nearer it grows painfully squally. Nesbitt, Camp and Watson are the candidates.

Speaking at Wellborn.

CORRESPONDENCE OF THE GAZETTE.
WELLBORN, TEX., Oct. 23.—A candidates meeting was held here last night which was poorly attended by the county seekers for office. Messrs. Zimmerman and Kirk, candidates respectively for county attorney and tax assessor, were present and made short speeches.

The Arkansas Second.

SPECIAL TO THE GAZETTE.
LITTLE ROCK, ARK., Oct. 24.—The Republican convention nominated D. D. Leach, of Augusta, Ark., for congress from the Second congressional district in opposition to C. R. Breckenridge, Democrat, and Reuben Carlie, Wheeler.

Montague Safe.

SPECIAL TO THE GAZETTE.
BOWIE, TEX., Oct. 24.—Mr. Bronsford, candidate of the Democratic party for the legislature, has made a thorough canvass of this county, and now no fears are felt but what the Democrats will carry the entire ticket.

Have all your book-binding done at home, and get the Fort Worth Printing House's estimates on such work.

PROBABLY THE EUREKA.

The Dominion Reaches Fort, but the Eureka Not Heard From.

SAULT STE. MARIE, MICH., Oct. 24.—The overdue propeller Dominion, which was thought to have been wrecked about Whitefish Point, arrived down this evening. The wreckage floating about at the foot of Lake Superior is probably that of the schooner Eureka. The Eureka was formerly towed by the steamer Glasgow, and it is presumed here that the life-preserver found with the wreckage, marked Glasgow, was on board the Eureka. As yet, nothing has been heard of her or the lost crew.

RAILROAD WRECK.

One Man Fatally and Several Badly Injured in a Collision.

DETROIT, MICH., Oct. 24.—A passenger train on the Detroit, Grand Haven & Milwaukee railway, consisting of a baggage-car, two coaches and a sleeper, ran into an open switch at Royal Oak, about eight miles from here late last night and collided with a heavily-loaded freight train. Engineer Augustus Odell of the passenger train and his fireman, Thomas Barretal, jumped after vainly trying to stop the train. Simultaneous with the collision which telescoped the baggage car and one freight car, the cylinder-heads blew off, and the hiss of escaping steam, coupled with the screams and groans of the trainmen buried in the wreck added terror to the frightful scene. Both engines were completely wrecked. Baggageman John Hennessy and Thomas B. Alexander were buried under the fragments of the baggage car and badly bruised and burned, the stove having been emptied on their heads. Alexander's condition is critical. John Smedley, the fireman of the freight engine, was taken from under one of the broken cylinders, the steam from which had literally cooked the flesh of his legs, right side and arms. He will die. Nicholas Lamb, engineer of the freight train, was badly cut and scalded. The engineer and fireman of the passenger train, who jumped before the crash, rolled down an embankment and were badly hurt. Engineer Odell having his shoulder dislocated, and being injured internally. Several others received minor bruises. The track was torn up, and the rails twisted in every direction, and the remnants of the two engines lie in a promiscuous heap. The loss is not less than $50,000.

THE ANARCHISTS' ORATIONS.

Thousands of Copies of the Book of Speeches Sold.

CHICAGO, ILL., Oct. 24.—At a meeting of the Central Labor union, held in the anarchists' old headquarters No. 54 West Lake street this afternoon, a report was presented from the committee appointed last Sunday to have the speeches of the condemned anarchists printed in book form. The committee announced that thousands of copies of the book had been sent to all parts of the country, and that many of the labor organs in various cities are acting as distributing agents. The receipts of sales, the report says, would soon be pouring in from all parts of the United States to assist the eight prisoners.

Small-Pox at Detroit.

DETROIT, MICH., Oct. 24.—Three days ago Mrs. George Geiss of Jay street gave birth to a child. She was taken with some disease which baffled her physician's skill, and the board of health was called in, to discover it to be the most malignant case of small-pox yet developed. She died to-day.

Two Men Lynched.

JACKSONVILLE, FLA., Oct. 24.—A Times-Union special from Apalachicola says that John and Jot Renon were lynched yesterday at Blountstown, Franklin county, in this state, for the murder of John Griffin on October 2.

The Cleveland Puzzle.

Baltimore American.
The Hon. Frank Lawler seems to amuse the president very much when he calls at the White House, and Cleveland is always glad to see the Chicago congressman. On Saturday, after introducing the baseball line, he asked the president if it was so that he had originated a puzzle. The president looked at him as if greatly astonished at the question, and then the Hon. Frank explained that he had been shown a puzzle which every one was calling "The Cleveland Puzzle."

"It is a little more emphatic in language than you usually use," explained Mr. Lawler. "But, then, office-seekers are mighty peculiar people, and I would not wonder at you using any kind of language to some of them."

"What is the puzzle?" asked the president, who had grown interested.

"Give me a piece of paper and a pencil and I will show you," replied the Hon. Frank.

The two sat down at the desk and Mr. Lawler put down eleven ciphers on the paper, as follows:

0000 000 00 00
The President looked at them and said: "Well, I don't see anything strange about that."

"No, not as they stand now," said the Chicago congressman. "But wait and see." Then he took up the pencil again and said:

"Mark a straight line down from the low right-hand corner of the first cipher; that changes it to g. Then mark a straight line from the upper right-hand corner of the fourth cipher, and that makes it d. Then put another similar straight line down on the fifth cipher and make it also; a straight line on the seventh cipher to make it d. Then another straight line up on the eighth cipher to it will be d also, and a straight line down on the tenth and that will make it g, and there you have a sentence, and one, it is said, you use on the office-seekers."

The president looked at the puzzle as altered, and read:

"good god, dogo!"
He looked at the Hon. Frank a minute, and finally said: "Well, I'll say it to you." The Chicago congressman has been very busy showing the Cleveland puzzle all around to-day.
